

The Palestinians prisoners who had tunneled out of Israel's high security Gilboa prison in September 2021. The prison guards were carefully selected for their brown skin color in order to give the impression that the people who live in Palestine are not white Europeans. All the white soldiers have been made to disappear. They feel excessive fear that if people begin to notice how European the Ashkenazi look for a people who claimed they were returning home to Palestine, people make begin to wonder if that was very true and may begin to wonder if they really have the right to be there as a European people.
